The Midday Shift

10h00 – 15h00

Mon - Fri

The midday shift has a diverse listenership, from people at home, in supermarkets and shops, fuel stations … and more recently a young generation has joined the listenership since schools are closed. It is mainly a station for young adults and entails talking about people's lifestyles and daily lives.

Presenter: Linda Jele aka Lj Mleendoz

He has been with EBIS since 2016 as an assistant radio producer, a job that entails live/continuity presenting and production of programmes, as well as outside broadcast. Prior to that he was with the Voice of the Church Radio, a Christian radio station (2003 – 2006) . He then joined The Times of Eswatini where he worked in various departments. In 2015 he joined the Eswatini Observer as a Senior Reporter until he re-joined radio in 2016.